

10 LINES ON MAKAR SANKRANTI FESTIVAL IN ENGLISH

Major 10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English

Leave a Comment / Study / By Marco

Discover 10 lines on Makar Sankranti festival in English, a fun festival in India that celebrates the harvest season with kite flying, bonfires, and sweet treats.

Makar Sankranti, it is a festival that needs no introduction for the Sanatanis. Like no other Hindu festivals, Makar Sankranti is celebrated on the fixed day i.e. 14th January of each year. Yea, you have heard it right that there is no other Hindu festival with fixed dates. Feeling overwhelmed?

There are a lot more you may not be aware of Makar Sankranti. It is truly based on the sun's move into Capricorn, it is the clear indication of the end of winters and start of the harvest seasons.

And you know what, it is not limited to India only. Even the US, UK and some of the Indian diaspora destinations are also celebrating Makar Sankranti. They celebrate it with kite flying bonfires, and sharing sweet treats like tilgul made from sesame and jaggery.

With the social media trends, Makar Sankranti is becoming more popular around the world because of its legacy and scientific proof.

Table of Contents

1. 10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English
2. 10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English (Elaborated)
3. 10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English for Class 6
4. 10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English for Class 5
5. 10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English for Class 4
6. 10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival for Class 3
7. 10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival for Class 1
8. 10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival for Class 2
9. Makar Sankranti festival is celebrated in which state?
10. How is Makar Sankranti celebrated?
11. Essay on Makar Sankranti in English in 100 Words
12. 10 Lines About Makar Sankranti
13. Wrap Up

10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English

1. Makar Sankranti is on January 14th every year.
2. It celebrates the sun moving into Capricorn.
3. The festival marks the end of winter.
4. People fly kites in the sky.
5. Bonfires are lit to welcome longer days.
6. People share sweets like tilgul (sesame and jaggery).
7. Families come together to celebrate.
8. Many take a dip in rivers to feel blessed.
9. It's celebrated by Indians around the world.
10. Makar Sankranti is a time for joy and new beginnings.

10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English (Elaborated)

1. Makar Sankranti is on January 14th Every Year

Makar Sankranti is always celebrated on January 14th. It's a day that brings everyone together to mark the end of winter. For example, families in India often wait for this day to gather and enjoy the warmth of the season.

2. It Celebrates the Sun Moving into Capricorn

This festival celebrates the sun moving into Capricorn. In simple terms, it's about welcoming more sunlight and longer days. Think of it like the sun turning a corner to give us brighter days, just like how we feel when the weather gets warmer!

3. The Festival Marks the End of Winter

Makar Sankranti marks the end of the cold winter. People feel happy because the chilly days are behind them. It's like when you finally get to wear lighter clothes after a long winter.

4. People Fly Kites in the Sky

One of the best things about Makar Sankranti is flying kites. It's super fun and exciting, especially for kids. In cities like Ahmedabad, there are huge kite festivals where people gather in parks, compete, and enjoy the day together.

5. Bonfires are Lit to Welcome Longer Days

Bonfires are lit in many parts of India. People gather around the fire, sing songs, dance, and enjoy each other's company. For example, in Punjab, the Lohri festival is celebrated with large bonfires, bringing families and friends together.

6. People Share Sweets Like Tilgul (Sesame and Jaggery)

Sharing sweets like tilgul is a popular tradition. People give these treats to friends and family, saying, "Tilgul ghya, god god bola" meaning "Eat tilgul and speak sweetly." It's a way to spread kindness. Imagine passing around small packets of these sweets at a family get-together.

7. Families Come Together to Celebrate

Makar Sankranti is a great time for family bonding. Families gather, share meals, and enjoy each other's company. For instance, in a big family gathering, cousins might play games or help make the traditional sweets together.

8. Many Take a Dip in Rivers to Feel Blessed

In some parts of India, like Haridwar, people take a holy dip in the Ganges River. It's believed that the water brings blessings and good luck. You might have seen pictures of people in colorful clothes, smiling, as they take a dip in the river with their families.

9. It's Celebrated by Indians Around the World

Makar Sankranti isn't just celebrated in India. Indian families in the US, the UK, and other countries also celebrate it. For example, you might see people in the US organizing kite festivals or cooking traditional sweets in their backyards.

10. Makar Sankranti is a Time for Joy and New Beginnings

Makar Sankranti is all about starting fresh and spreading happiness. People feel excited about the new season and the good things ahead. It's like a new year celebration, where you feel hopeful and full of energy to start something new!

10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English for Class 6

1. Makar Sankranti is celebrated every year on January 14th with joy.
2. It marks the movement of the sun into the Capricorn zodiac.
3. Flying colorful kites is the highlight of this festival.
4. People gather around bonfires and enjoy the warmth.
5. Sweets made from sesame and jaggery, like tilgul, are shared with love.
6. Farmers celebrate Makar Sankranti as a harvest festival.
7. Many take a holy dip in rivers, believing it brings blessings.
8. Families come together to share food, laughter, and happiness.
9. The festival celebrates the sun's journey and hope for a brighter future.
10. Makar Sankranti is all about fun, new beginnings, and spreading positivity.

10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English for Class 5

1. Makar Sankranti is celebrated on January 14th every year.
2. It is the day the sun enters the Capricorn zodiac sign.
3. People love flying colorful kites in the bright blue sky.
4. Bonfires are lit, and families gather around to celebrate.
5. Delicious sweets like tilgul, made of sesame and jaggery, are shared.
6. Farmers rejoice as it's a harvest festival, marking a successful season.
7. Many people take a holy dip in rivers to feel blessed.
8. Families enjoy special meals together, filled with love and laughter.
9. The festival symbolizes hope, warmth, and happiness.
10. Makar Sankranti is a day to celebrate togetherness and new beginnings.

10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English for Class 4

1. Makar Sankranti is celebrated on January 14th every year.
2. It's the day when people fly colorful kites.

3. Families enjoy sitting by warm bonfires.
4. People eat tasty sweets like tilgul made from sesame and jaggery.
5. Farmers celebrate it as a harvest festival with great joy.
6. Some people take holy baths in rivers for good fortune.
7. Everyone feels happy as the sun starts bringing longer days.
8. Families spend the day enjoying delicious food and fun activities.
9. The festival brings joy, warmth, and hope to all.
10. Makar Sankranti is a time for celebrations and new beginnings.

10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival for Class 3

1. Makar Sankranti is celebrated every year on January 14th.
2. People love flying kites in the bright sky.
3. Families gather around warm bonfires.
4. Everyone eats sweets like tilgul made with jaggery and sesame.
5. It's a special festival for farmers to celebrate their harvest.
6. Many take a bath in rivers for blessings and good luck.
7. People celebrate the longer days as the sun brings warmth.
8. Families enjoy the day with fun and delicious food.
9. Makar Sankranti brings happiness to everyone.
10. It's a festival full of hope, joy, and love.

10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival for Class 1

1. Makar Sankranti is a happy festival on January 14th.
2. People fly colorful kites in the sky.
3. Families sit near warm bonfires in the evening.
4. Tasty sweets made from sesame and jaggery are eaten and shared.
5. Farmers celebrate their crops on this day.
6. People take a dip in rivers to feel blessed.
7. The sun starts bringing warmer and longer days.
8. Families enjoy the day with fun and yummy food.
9. Everyone feels happy and excited during this festival.
10. Makar Sankranti is a festival of joy and togetherness.

10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival for Class 2

1. Makar Sankranti is celebrated on January 14th with joy.
2. People love flying kites and watching the colorful sky.
3. Families enjoy sitting near cozy bonfires.

4. Everyone shares tasty sweets made with sesame and jaggery.
5. It's a festival where farmers celebrate their crops.
6. People take baths in rivers to feel lucky and blessed.
7. The sun starts giving longer and warmer days.
8. Families come together to enjoy food, fun, and laughter.
9. This day is full of happiness and excitement.
10. Makar Sankranti is a beautiful festival of hope and joy.

Makar Sankranti festival is celebrated in which state?

Makar Sankranti is celebrated across all states in India, but the traditions and names differ depending on the region. Here's how some states celebrate it:

1. Punjab: Celebrated as Lohri the night before Makar Sankranti.
2. Gujarat: Known for Uttarayan with grand kite festivals.
3. Tamil Nadu: Celebrated as Pongal, a four-day harvest festival.
4. Andhra Pradesh & Telangana: Observed as Pedda Panduga or Sankranti with cultural activities.
5. Karnataka: Celebrated with sharing ellu-bella (sesame and jaggery).
6. Maharashtra: Known for exchanging tilgul and saying "Tilgul ghya ani goad bolaa" (Take sweets and speak sweetly).
7. Uttar Pradesh & Bihar: Known as Khichdi festival, with bathing in holy rivers.
8. West Bengal: Celebrated as Poush Sankranti, marked by Ganga Sagar Mela.
9. Odisha: Known as Makar Mela, with special food offerings.
10. Assam: Celebrated as Magh Bihu, marking the end of the harvest season.

Each state adds its unique flavor, making Makar Sankranti a truly pan-Indian festival!

How is Makar Sankranti celebrated?

Makar Sankranti is a fun festival celebrated across India. Here's how people celebrate:

1. Flying Kites: People fly colorful kites with family and friends.
2. Bonfires: Some light bonfires to celebrate the harvest.
3. Special Sweets: People eat sweets made of sesame and jaggery.
4. Taking a Bath: Many take a holy dip in rivers for blessings.
5. Pongal Dish: In Tamil Nadu, people cook a special dish called Pongal.
6. Sharing Sweets: People give sweets to others for good luck.
7. Decorating Animals: Farmers decorate their cows and bulls.
8. Making Rangolis: Homes are decorated with colorful patterns.
9. Community Fairs: People visit fairs and have fun.

10. Dance and Music: People enjoy traditional dances and music.

Makar Sankranti is a time to have fun, be with family, and spread happiness.

Essay on Makar Sankranti in English in 100 Words

Here is how the essay on Makar Sankranti in 100 words:

Makar Sankranti is a vibrant festival celebrated in India on January 14 each year. It marks the transition of the sun into Capricorn, signaling the end of winter and the start of warmer days.

People celebrate with great enthusiasm by flying colorful kites, dancing, and enjoying festive foods like tilgul (sesame and jaggery sweets). In different regions, the festival is known by various names, such as Pongal in Tamil Nadu and Lohri in Punjab.

Many also take holy dips in rivers for spiritual purification. The festival brings families and communities together, spreading joy, warmth, and positivity.

10 Lines About Makar Sankranti

Here are 10 very simple lines about Makar Sankranti:

1. Makar Sankranti is celebrated on January 14th.
2. It marks the start of warmer days.
3. The sun moves into the Capricorn sign.
4. People fly colorful kites in the sky.
5. Sweets like tilgul (sesame and jaggery) are shared.
6. Many people take a holy dip in rivers.
7. It's known as Pongal in Tamil Nadu and Lohri in Punjab.
8. Families gather to celebrate together.
9. The festival marks the end of winter.
10. It's a time of joy and new beginnings.

Wrap Up

In conclusion, Makar Sankranti is one of the greatest and happiest festival, celebrated across India. It marks the start of the harvest season and the sun's movement into Capricorn. It involves plenty of activities such as sharing joy, good wishes, and spending time with loved ones.

It is not just a festival, but a great way to welcoming new beginnings and looking forward to a bright year ahead. It brings people together to enjoy traditions and celebrate nature's changes.

← Previous Post

Related Posts

Exploring Best And Easy Poems to Memorize 10 Lines: Poetry Made Simple

Leave a Comment / Study / By Marco

An Absolute Guide on 10 Importance of Mental Health

Leave a Comment / Study / By Marco

Leave a Comment

Your email address will not be published. Required fields are marked *

Type here..

Save my name, email, and website in this browser for the next time I comment.

Post Comment »

Recent Posts

Major 10 Lines on Makar Sankranti Festival in English

10 Lines on Maharaja Ranjit Singh to Unveil His Greatness

10 Lines on Charles Babbage

10 Lines on Madhubani Painting

Top 10 Lines on My Hobby

Categories

Festivals

Historical Icon

Study

Privacy Policy
Disclaimer
Terms And Conditions